from QuotationsBook.com

They that will not apply new remedies must expect new evils.

- Bacon, Francis

Learn to adjust yourself to the conditions you have to endure, but make a point of trying to alter or correct conditions so that they are most favorable to you.

- Book, William Frederick

I found out that if you are going to win games, you had better be ready to adapt.

- Bowman, Scotty

One learns to itch where one can scratch.

- Bramah, Ernest

In war as in life, it is often necessary when some cherished scheme has failed, to take up the best alternative open, and if so, it is folly not to work for it with all your might.

- Churchill, Winston

Singularity shows something wrong in the mind.

- Clarissa

Complete adaptation to environment means death. The essential point in all response is the desire to control environment.

- Dewey, John

Adaptability is not imitation. It means power of resistance and assimilation.

- Gandhi, Mahatma

We must make the best of those ills which cannot be avoided.

- Hamilton, Alexander

A well adjusted person is one who makes the same mistake twice without getting nervous.

- Heard, Jane

The weather-cock on the church spire, though made of iron, would soon be broken by the storm-wind if it did not understand the noble art of turning to every wind.

- Heine, Heinrich

To the man who only has a hammer, everything he encounters begins to look like a nail.

- Maslow, Abraham H.

As a rule, I am very careful to be shallow and conventional where depth and originality are wasted.
